The Rank & Review Committee Convened at 8:30 a.m. to review all applications received at the 4th floor of Joplin City Hall by 8:30am, Tuesday the 6th of September. Once application was received late and was determined to be accepted but given last consideration due to failure to meet submittal deadline. Total funds requested by eligible applicants renewals, including late submission matched total funds available. No committee discretion in reallocation of funds was required as allowed by Policy 6.0 of the policies and procedures manual of the CoC as to not leave any unspent funds.

The available funds compared to applications received are as follows:
